

First News Briefs for January 23, 2013

Wireless Week Staff

TeleCommunication Systems, Inc., a provider of secure mobile communication technology, today announced TCS Smart911, a nationwide solution for public safety industry providing enhanced information during emergency communications that use text messaging (Short Message Service [SMS] 9-1-1).

Onvoy, a provider of wholesale telecommunication services, today announced it is expanding coverage of its VoIP service into New York, NY by adding 121 new rate centers. With the addition of the new rate centers in New York, Onvoy's customers can now access an additional 20 million people.

Keynote today announced the availability of DeviceAnywhere Free, a free, on-demand testing solution allowing developers to spot check content on real mobile devices anytime, anywhere.

KPN has partnered with the Fon Wi-Fi network to offer KPN customers access to Wi-Fi hotspots in the Netherlands and to more than seven million Wi-Fi hotspots abroad.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/31/2015 - 11:28am):

<http://www.wirelessweek.com/news/2013/01/first-news-briefs-january-23-2013>