

First News Briefs for May 6, 2013

Wireless Week Staff

Sprint and Time Inc. today announced a mobile content, advertising and retail alliance. As part of the arrangement, Time Inc. will deliver its branded content within a customizable section of the SprintZone application on select Sprint devices. Customers can expect the latest entertainment, lifestyle, sports and business news.

Motorola Solutions, Inc. is releasing a suite of new indoor- and outdoor-rated 802.11ac access points.

USAT Corp. today announced the company is now a Verizon Wireless Vertical Solutions Provider (VSP). As a result of this new business relationship, USAT Corp. can deploy and support standalone 2G, 3G EVDO and 4G LTE Verizon Wireless network devices.

Novatel Wireless, Inc., a provider of wireless solutions, today announced that it has entered into a Supply Agreement with LoJack SCI, a supplier of supply chain integrity and tracking solutions. The agreement includes Machine-to-Machine (M2M) mobile tracking and workforce monitoring devices by Novatel Wireless, which will serve as a key component of LoJack SCI's cargo and asset tracking offerings.

Source URL (retrieved on 06/12/2013 - 8:02am):

<http://www.wirelessweek.com/news/2013/05/first-news-briefs-may-6-2013>